

Futures in EDUCATION

Panel Discussion about careers in the classroom

Thursday, March 4th - 1.00 - 3.00 pm,
Michael J. Fox Theatre, 7373 MacPherson Ave. Burnaby, BC

British Columbia's education sector offers diverse and ample opportunities for dedicated professionals to work in public and private settings.

This Panel Discussion will bring together representatives from various licensing bodies, professional associations, unions and training programs to share information about jobs in early childhood, secondary and post-secondary education. Some of the topics include:

- ☐ The variety of teaching, support, administrative, and management positions in public and private educational institutions
- ☐ Opportunities and careers for internationally trained educators
- ☐ Licensing and certification requirements
- ☐ Major trends shaping the future of the education sector
- ☐ Benefits and drawbacks of a career in the classroom

Join us to get the experts' perspective on working in BC schools, pre-schools, colleges and universities

©PoweredTemplates.com

- Free Admission
- To register, go to www.training-innovations.com/register or call 604.298.4757, ext. 245
- Free limited parking is available at the Michael J. Fox Theatre, which is attached to Burnaby South Secondary School
- The nearest major intersections are Kingsway and Royal Oak, and Royal Oak and Rumble St.
- The Royal Oak Skytrain station is just 500 meters North West - on leaving the station, walk left on Beresford, then right on Antrim - follow this small street right to the parking lot and front door

We would like to thank our sponsors for this event:

