

The Burnaby Employment Resource Centre and the BC Labour Market Report present:

Careers in Government & Public Service

Wednesday, May 13th
1.00 - 3.00 pm
Michael J. Fox Theatre
7373 MacPherson Ave.
Burnaby, BC

Did you know that there are over 250,000 core federal public service jobs in 1,600 points of service across Canada. There are also 222,000 members of the Canadian Forces, the RCMP, and Crown corporations? Over 30% of the BC Public Service employees are expected to retire by 2015.

Numerous jobs are also available at municipal levels. This Panel Discussion on Careers in Government & Public Service will bring together managers and recruitment experts to present their perspectives on federal, provincial and civic jobs. Specific topics may include:

- In-demand positions
- Hiring process
- Benefits and challenges of working for the government and public service
- How to get started and advance your career

Join us to get the experts' perspective on working for the government and in public service.
